

Leadership New York

2024-2025 Application Information

For 30+ years, Leadership New York (LNY) has convened a cross-sector cohort of mid to early-executive level professionals committed to developing their leadership capacity and improving New York City and State. LNY participants will join a class of civic leaders at the forefront of exploring and examining this uncertain era in New York.

We anticipate in-person sessions starting in August, following CDC & DOH guidelines. If you are committed to driving positive change across communities and sectors, you are the leader New York needs most. Click the link below to start your LNY application today.
